We are a Gold rights respecting school

WE ARE A UNICEF GOLD
RIGHTS RESPECTING SCHOOL

Children's rights are learned, understood and lived in this school.

In a gold rights respecting school children's rights are learned, understood and lived.

We teach you about your rights so that you understand them.

We give you opportunities to access your rights.

We give you opportunities to share your voice and put forward your ideas.

We meet with members of the community to promote and protect your rights.

We ensure that children's rights are protected in the classroom so that you access your right to learn and feel safe.

The UNCRC

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of a Child (UNCRC), underpins the culture and policies of Plymouth Grove School.

Rights holders - you!

Duty Bearers

Duty bearers are adults who have a responsibility to protect the rights of children.

Who can I talk to?

You can talk to any duty bearer at Plymouth Grove if you are happy, angry, worried, sad or scared. You might also like to speak to...
