

Plymouth Grove Rights Respecting Language

- Please make sure that we tidy our classroom - we all have the right to a clean and healthy environment.
- Please remember to use kind hands and feet as we all have the right to be safe
- Thank you for walking sensibly down the stairs/corridors - this is protecting everyone's right to be safe from harm.
- I'm not sure the way you were walking was protecting everyone's right to be safe.
- Please could you go back and try again?
- Remember, we all have the right to make our own friends, but not if those friendships hurt other people. We must feel safe in school.
- Thank you for listening carefully, you have helped to protect _____'s right to have an opinion and be heard.
- Remember to respect everyone's right to be heard by listening carefully during their speech.
- Please remember that we all have a right to an education, I have noticed that there is some distraction in our classroom. We must protect each other's rights.
- We all have the right to learn, but your choices have stopped me from teaching our class. Do you think we are able to protect their right to an education right now?
- We all have the right to be safe, but your choices have meant that everyone's rights are not being protected. How could you better protect their right to be safe?
- At school, my main job is to protect your right to learn, because I am a duty bearer and a teacher. If you stop me doing that, then I will have to ask you to move out of the room so that I can protect everyone's rights equally.

Article 3 - The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect the children.
